DISCOVER THE NEW FEATURES OF THE VALENCIA TOURIST CARD

The Valencia Tourist Card

(24h 15€, 48h 20€, 72h 25€), the card that gives you unlimited journeys on public transport around the city as well as offering a range of discounts in museums, shops, restaurants and tourist services, is without a doubt the best purchase if you're looking for a convenient way to discover Valencia. It's our star product for tourists, and that's why it's full of new features for 2012. What's more, we're constantly adapting the Valencia Tourist Card to the needs of tourists who visit Valencia, for example in 2011 when the Valencia Cruise Card and Valencia Family Card were launched for cruise passengers and families with children between the ages of six and twelve.

These cards are available at our Tourist Offices or they can be purchased beforehand from our Offers Portal with a 10% discount on adult cards and a 20% discount on children's cards. When tourists buy a Valencia Tourist Card they also receive, together with the current VTCard Guide, a map divided into different zones, in order to help them get the most out of their card: Cabecera Park- Bioparc, Old Town, City of Arts and Sciences, Marina and Beaches and Albufera and Surrounding Areas

If tourists wish to make further savings, they can acquire, via our Tourist Info points or Offers Portal, one of our 24h, 48h or 72h experiences both for adults and for children, which include a Valencia Tourist Card with a 10% discount for adults and a 20% for children.

THE EXPERIENCES are categorised according to Zones: Old Town, Third Millennium (City of Arts and Sciences zone), Nature (Bioparc zone) or Albufera Natural Park.

Enjoy Valencia!

BIOPARC CELEBRATES ITS FOURTH BIRTHDAY

On 28 February, Bioparc Valencia will be 4 years old, and to celebrate this it will be giving away a free Berde! annual pass for children between 4 and 12 years old with the purchase of every adult annual pass. Bioparc hopes to encourage families to acquire this pass in order to give them the unique opportunity to visit the heart of Africa in Valencia for an entire year, and to enjoy the over 4,000 animals from more than 250 species that live there. What's more, one of the best things about the annual pass is that it offers the opportunity to see the baby animals that are born in the park grow and develop – without doubt, an incredible experience for nature lovers.

HAVEN'T YOU EVER VISITED VALENCIA DURING LAS FALLAS?

This year, Las Fallas, Valencia's most international festival, is to be held from 15 to 19 March, with the main days falling on the weekend. Over five intense days the city will become a veritable feast for the senses. It will be especially stunning to look at, with the rich colours of the traditional costumes made from natural silk, over 700 Fallas – pieces of artwork generally erected at intersections between the city's streets – and the white, pink and red carnations that cover the mantle of Our Lady of the Forsaken on the days of the flower offerings. Visitors can also enjoy the smells and sounds of the festival, with the abundance of flowers and masclètàs, pyrotechnics displays to be held in the Plaza del Ayuntamiento at 2 pm from 1 to 19 March – something that fills Valencians with joy when they begin to note the characteristic smell of gunpowder. There will also be a firework display every night of the festival in Paseo de la Alameda, and finally the Nit de la Cremà, when all of the Fallas monuments go up in flames. The sense of touch is awoken too, as people come together to enjoy these special pyrotechnics displays. As for the taste buds, you can enjoy the hot chocolate and buñuelos (small fried balls of dough) that are typically eaten during these days full of joy, art, excitement, music, colour and many more surprises that you will only discover if you come to Valencia from 15 to 19 March. Visit www.turisvalencia.es to find the easiest and most convenient way to plan your trip to Valencia for Las Fallas.
